REVOLTING

Charges Preferred by a Wife Against Her Husband From Whom She Wants a Divorce.

Accuses Him of Abominable Crimes and That He Obtained Her Heart and Hand by Fraud.

During the past week divorce cases have been filed in the Court of Common Pleas which have possessed features of a more than ordinary character, but the most startling petition was that of Lucretia Root, which was filed on Saturday. The defendant is Joseph Root, an inmate of the Soldiers' Home. The petition, which was filed for the plaintiff by Mr. U. T. Curran and Mr. Theo. Alvord, recounts a shocking story.

The parties were married in September, 1892, in this city, and there are no children of the marriage. Plaintiff says Root induced her to marry him by fraudulent representations. He represented himself to be a man of good moral character and of good repute, and pure and virtuous character and standing among his fellow citizens: and also represented himself to be a man of considerable wealth, and able to support a wife in moderate competence without her being obliged to do other labor than that of her own household. But, plaintiff says, the defendant was not and is not of decent and good character; on the other hand, he was and is a man of the vilest character. Before their marriage he was convicted of the crime of incest by the court of Wexford county, Michigan, and for this crime served ten years in the State prison at Jackson, Michigan. To more thoroughly deceive the plaintiff ing obliged to do other labor than that of her own household. But, plaintiff says, the defendant was not and is not of decent and good character; on the other hand, he was and is a man of the vilest character. Before their marriage he was convicted of the crime of incest by the court of Wexford county, Michigan, and for this crime served ten years in the State prison at Jackson, Michigan. To more thoroughly deceive the plaintiff he represented that he was the father of but two children by a former marriage, and fraudulently concealed the existence of six other children. Defendant was not able to support plaintiff, but on the contrary plaintiff was obliged to take in washing to support herself and pay the debts of the defendant, and was fed with food abstracted from the table of the Ohio Soldiers and Sailors' Home, of which the defendant was and is an inmate.

Plaintiff says the fact that the defendant had been guilty of the crime named and had been punished therefor was unknown to her until after her marriage to Root, and that the other false representations were not known by her to be false until after her marriage, and that she believed him to be a man of good and honorable character, otherwise she would not have married him.

As a second cause of action plaintiff charges her husband with having harbored vile and dissolute women in his house and only excluded them upon threats of dismissal from the Home. She charges him with adultery with these women. Defendant, unknown to her until after her marriage, had had immoral relations with other women and was and is in the habit of boasting of the same and recounting his crimes as a matter of which to be proud.

Defendant is the owner of a piece of land adjoining the Soldiers' Home which is worth $400, and plaintiff, who claims to have no means of support except the labor of her hands, asks for alimony in addition to a divorce from the defendant.

HOW TO BOARD A CAR.

A Motorman's Suggestion to Ladies and Gentlemen.

More accidents are attributed to the ignorance of people in not knowing how to get on and off a street car than to any other cause. A motorman says that to do this with perfect safety and ease is not difficult to learn if only a little attention is bestowed upon it. The ladies are particularly careless in getting on and off street cars, and it is to them more than the gentlemen that he commends the following suggestions. The perfect ease and grace with which some people board electric cars while in motion, can be seen every day. They simply carry out the rules appended.

When you wish to take a car stand on the right-hand side of the street on the far crossing, in the direction the car you wish to take is going. Look toward the motorman of the approaching car; raise your hand with a slight inclination; the signal will be understood and the car stopped. Before attempting to get on, transfer anything you may be carrying to the left hand or arm; stand close to the car; grasp the handrail with the right hand, step on the lower step with the left foot, and you will find yourself safely and speedily aboard. As you approach the corner where you wish to alight, signal the conductor, move toward the rear of the car, holding tight to the platform or side of door so that you will not feel the sudden jerk made in stopping; step on the lower step, face the way the car is going; hold on to the handrail with the left hand, stepping off, alight on the right foot, bending the knees slightly, bring the left foot in front of the right, and you will find that you have acquired an accomplishment that will be useful to you. Never get off backward or straight out from the car.

Death:	Apr. 6, 1906 Tustin Osceola County Michigan, USA

Rev. Root was my 5th great grandfather. I've seen his first name spelled many different ways. He lived into his 94th year. In a letter written by him dated March 23, 1887, he talks about his son, Morgan who died in the Civil War. He also says he lost 3 son-in-laws in the Civil War leaving him with 12 fatherless grandchildren.

Warden, Michigan Reformatory
Ionia, Michigan

My dear Warden:

In the matter of George Root committed to Ionia for six months today, for violating his probation as a liquor law violator, George is a nice old fellow and we have tried hard to get along with him, and I probably should not have revoked his probation now, except that he is suffering from a hernia and I am in hopes that you will be able to take care of him and have him cured before he is released.

He violates his probation terms continually by getting intoxicated or failing to report or something of that sort. Do what you can for him.

Yours truly,

Fred T. Miles, Circuit Judge.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE ROOT, OTSEGO
Married 60 Years, Celebrate Sunday

FAMILY CELEBRATION SUNDAY

Otsegoans Wed 60 Years

OTSEGO, Mich. - Married 60 years ago yesterday in Osceola County, Mr. and Mrs. George Root will celebrate at a five-generation family gathering Sunday at the Otsego Grange hall.

Attending this event will be their 12 children, 35 grandchildren, 34 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

They spent one year in South Dakota and the rest of the time they have lived in Michigan — residents of Otsego for many years.

When Mr. Root was a small boy he worked in the saw mills near Cadillac with his father — later running logs on the Kalamazoo river from Allegan to Saugatuck. He worked in both the old number one paper mill and the wax mill, which are both paper industries. After retiring from that he owned and operated a small paper collection agency in Otsego.

The Roots have 12 children. Their six daughters are Mrs. Irene Doublestein, Mrs. Clara Dann, Mrs. Laura Holmes, Otsego, Mrs. Nina Lewis, Flint, Mrs. Doris Sweet, Flushing and Mrs. Frances Sheler, Grand Rapids. Their sons are Eugene of Omaha, Nebr., Otis and Roy, of Otsego and Arthur and George, Jr., Kalamazoo and Alfred, Montreal.

They both enjoy good health and friends report that they appear just as well and happy as they did on their 50th wedding anniversary. Mrs. Root still does all of her own housework.

Dear Nephew

Yours of Jan 2nd 96 - is on my table after so long a delay it reached us last night. replying to same have to say I could not well afford to sell my potatoes for less than the price I quoted you Still I may not realize that price still I would rather hold them than sell for less. On your former letter you write of our Democratic Hard times I dont wish to enter into any political discussion with you. However I will say right here for convenience sake You should write = Republican. Democratic Hard times. If you are informed on the Financial conditions of our country you will admit Useless Grant expresident of the united States did more to bring about these hard times than Grover Cleveland and all the Southern confederacy combined.

I am no democrat. I never voted a democrat ticket in my life. Still I would just as soon vote a democratic ticket as a Republican ticket there is no difference in the two parties both are trying to grease a lot of fat hogs that are in the corn crib. And leave the poor Devils in the rail pen exposed to Hunger and cold. After Lee had surrendered the people of the north were very joyful and Some Saught to prais Abraham Lincoln for his Success in closeing the War in a conference with Some of our leading Northern Men Lincoln Said Yes I think we have great cause to rejoice the war is So near at a close &c &c Yet said the venerable old Sage, I have More fears for the Safety of My country at this time than at any time during the war, continuing he said it Seems Trusts Combin and Monopolies Must rule = Now James was Lincoln anywhere near right. Sure he was. and while the Farmer and Laborer has been wrangling over the Tariff question the traitors have Sold our country to the Rothchilds and English and american Syndicate While we like whiped Currs would lick the hand that Makes us Slaves — or in other words vote the ticket (Republican or Democrat) that would tighten our fetters and while the Tariff question is laid away to gather a little rust we have picked up another question (nearly as big a Humbug) The Silver question You Should Know it is only a farce played by both parties to deceive the Ignorant Farmer and Labore I will now leave this branch of my Subject and breifly State a few facts concerning our land deal I bought the land five years ago have cleared it a Made our living on the land there was a Mortgage on the land when I bought it I paid Some interest then took sick. hard times Set in I did not pay the interest the Mortgage was foreclosed Aug 3rd/1898 the Mortgage interest and expences was $$457\frac{87}{100}$ I have one year to redeem the land in. I dont think I shall redeem it atall though I could if I wanted to stay here. the parties offer me a chance to pay for the place. thus. they offer if I pay $$157\frac{87}{100}$ down then $$100^{\underline{00}}$ each year I can have the place interest at the rate of seven % pr annum. I expect to stay here on the place and gather my crops another year. but you could move on in the fall if you buy. it is a desireable peice of land near town in fact in the corporation

If you want it you should come right away and make arangements while I can help you in the deal there is no land as cheap near us concidering all things a team can handle 100 bushels of potatoes from our place to the Depot. You can eat Breakfast in Toledo and supper with us same day. You could make a good living here good schools good roads 8 stores 1 hardware store two. feed stores three saloons two churches (methodist and Presbyterian) one Hotel several boarding houses Livery Stable. Stave Mill. Coal Kilns. 4 lumber mills. 1 Shingle mill Black smith Shop

I guess there is about 1,000 inhabitants in the town now

now James dont be deceived. If you have a good home there and are doing well stay there you can do no better by running around. you cant live all over the country on the other hand if you are in debt and can sell out there and pay for a home here. be out of debt. out of the Mud &c you perhaps could live here easier. yet it takes work to live here. as for fruit there is not much rased here but oceans of berries. It would cost you but little to come and see us and the place. so come and see for your self. I will show you around the country go to Toledo take the Toledo Ann Arbor and North Michigan Rail Road for McBain you will get here about three Oclock. P.M. Same day. You write about one of your neighbors coming. that is all right but he cant see with your eyes nor hear with your ears. your best plan is to come and see for your self. and that rig away. Now I copy your letter in part. it reads thus How I wish you could of been here with the rest of family. you being the youngest of the first children It seems almost to bad that you could not come But uncle lets try and meet beyond. where there is no discord and Father and Mother Brother and Sister can sing Praises for ever... Now James will we know each other there. Will that Mother of mine be there will Father be there. Will Fathers second wife be there. Will My Sisters all be there. will you be there. Will we all know eachother ther Will we all be friends there. or will some be determined to lie, cheat. swear falsley and defame the character of some other or will they change after

3 sheet) leaving this Mortal body. If you get there before I do and find there is no change will you pleas be So kind as to notify me if in your power So I may take Some other rout. I have been told that Father always quarreled with Mother one of My Sisters told Me in affect that Father and Esther (his wife now) neglected my Mother and caused Mothers death. then they got Married within a year and I know they have faught like cats and dogs ever Since I can recolect I havent a Sister but what has been accused of Whoredom. by this Same Emblem of purity they quarreled with my Bother Morgan he left home now these good People get a pension because they were dependent on my brother for Suppart. Pleas take your testament and read the 26 verse of XIV chapter St Luke and you will See clearly why I will not be there I am called an Infidel My Father Says I broke his leg to get his property. You Must Surely beleive I did or else you must beleive he lied about his own Son. Now James if I did ~~brea~~ break my fathers leg. If I did it on purpose. or intentionaly whether to get his property or not Surely I am a Deamon fit only for an Orthodox Hell
Then You would not care to Meet me in the world to come. nor perhaps in this world. If I did not break his leg. If I had no hand in it atall would you feel elated

If you were. I to Meet in a family reunion
James I beleive we are a Progressive people I beleive there is an over ruleing power. Governed by fixed immutable laws (the same as we are or so to speak) I beleive we will never die but after we leave the flesh we will be Judged according to the deeds done in the body and our Sins will appear a burning Shame to us until we have Justly paid the debt. Therefore I Claim this world
My home, Do right My Religion. You I am Sure are not ignorant of What I write None of My Sisters are ignorant they beleive me a deamon of Hell though I was their own Mothers Child. James I dont wish to complain I dont wish to blame any body else I would rather Stand and face the storm until the great night of death then I expect to go down like a Sunken Ship that cannot arise by her own efforts but must remain ingulfed until other hands rais her only to take out of the body that which is valuable. but enough of this Say to Jonas Meeker I am very thankful for for his compliments and Should be very much pleased to get a letter from him I always liked Jonas and Should like to see him very much Say to Your Mother I still live and entertain very warm affections for her Exept my best wishes for yourself and family
We are all usualy well. could I sell a car load of cedar fence posts there what are they worth. I will load a car here at 5 ¢ each on car here Yours &c S B Root write

Tribute to Hospital

(Editor's note: Mrs. Martha A. Quigg, who has been a patient sufferer at Sheldon Memorial hospital for several weeks, pays a fine tribute to the institution in the poem below, written while she has been bed-ridden.)

A House of Pain

I know of a house, full of pain and distress,
The name of the place, I am sure you will guess,
A place where we grumble, when other folks groan,
A place we are glad that our City can own.

One man broke his back, — now he's working again,
But the surgeon was criticized bitterly then,
He lay on a rack in a plaster cast bound,
Now he's back at his carpentry, glad to be 'round.

I know of this house, for it gave me its best,
There was nothing too good, it has met every test
From the Superintendent with kindness so rare
To each nurse who has given the best of her care.

The meals so delicious, tho varied at need,
For every condition, they're willing to heed.
With heat or with cold, they will change at your call,
And they scarcely seem bothered to do it at all.

But this house we avoid, 'till emergency drives,
Then expect it to meet every need of our lives,
To restore in perfection, our bodies, misused,
Do a miracle for us or else be abused.

Now this house is so full, that it can't do its best,
Tho the nurses are rushing at someone's help,
But someone is wanting them, scowling like sin,
'Tis a special nurse needed, where hall care has been.

I've watched from my ward, needing special care too,
And I marvel to see what our surgeons can do,
One's appendix was bursted, gangrene had set in,—
But she's mending just fine, we are hoping she'll win.

So this house, full of pain is my home for a while
But its faults and its virtues, I cannot compile.
I can only be thankful 'twas open to me,
When no hope but its comfort and care I could see.

Discovery Of Headstones Halts Work At County Site

Survey crews at the county's senior citizens complex at Arlington and South Detroit avenues have discovered numbered concrete grave markers, apparently part of a potter's field which commissioners thought had been moved some 30 years ago to Forest Cemetery.

The work in a wooded area in the southern part of the 72-acre property has been stopped, James Holzemer, president of the board of commissioners, said Thursday. He said he and George Wilson, county engineer, walked through the area Wednesday and saw perhaps 50 to 70 grave markers. The ground-level markers had been covered by undergrowth.

The South Toledo property formerly was the east campus of the Medical College of Ohio and before that housed various county facilities, including the Lucas County Home for the Aged. The county home, established in 1877, was merged with the former Maumee Valley Hospital in 1968.

The pauper's cemetery, on the grounds of the county home, was used for indigent burials by the county, as well as by the city for a time.

"There could have been 1,760 bodies buried there," Mr. Holzemer said.

Milan Forkapa, county administrator, said research a year ago indicated that all the remains had been moved to Forest Cemetery in the 1940s, and that the county could proceed with development of roadways and utilities on the property.

"We've stopped all construction and are going through the records again to determine . . . the status of that old potter's field," he added. "It has to be thoroughly investigated."

The county can't do any digging at the site for the answer without a court order, Mr. Forkapa said, adding that "the board of commissioners is not going to be insensitive."

Mr. Forkapa said former employees of the county home have said the remains were removed.

He added that research has been hampered by inability to find any record of the exact boundaries of the old cemetery.

The burial ground, originally called only Potter's Field, was renamed Sunshine Cemetery after the International Sunshine Society began a campaign in 1921 to improve conditions there.

In 1940, a county board told the commissioners that "Sunshine Cemetery falls below any standard of decency in a self-respecting community."

DIGGERS WORK TO UNCOVER REMAINS IN GRAVE ON FORMER MCO EAST CAMPUS

Remains Found In Graves At Site Of County Construction Project

Workers hired by Lucas County to search a former potter's field near the site of a county senior citizens' complex Friday found the remains of two bodies.

Dr. G. Michael Pratt, a professor in the history and anthropology department at Heidelberg College, Tiffin, O., one of those doing the work on the former east campus of the Medical College of Ohio, first found a brown leather boot protruding from the soil about 9:30 a.m. in an area planned for a road to the seniors' complex, near the Northwest Ohio Developmental Center.

The site was where a group of grave markers was found.

"I knew what it was when I hit the shoe with the shovel," Dr. Pratt said, adding that he was expecting to hit the bottom boards of a coffin or bare soil.

He was working in a five-foot-deep pit at the time. Closer inspection revealed rib bones, part of a jaw, and a pelvic bone, with a leather belt lying across it.

The name of the person is unknown.

County commissioners ordered the search of the field at Arlington and South Detroit avenues after up to 70 grave markers were found there last month. County Prosecutor Anthony Pizza told commissioners that although some records indicated that all remains at the field had been removed to Forest Cemetery in the 1940s, Forest Cemetery has no record of receiving the remains.

Number Of Graves Unclear

Dr. Pratt and three University of Toledo students were hired to conduct the search, assisted by eight county employees.

Dr. Pratt said there is no clear indication of how many graves are in the area.

The cemetery apparently was developed in 1886 on the grounds of a county home for the aged. The site later held various county facilities, then became the east campus of MCO.

John Crawford, a crew chief on the county engineer's survey team, said he expected to find remains at the site, "but when you see these shoes and jawbone sticking out of the ground, it's quite something."

Chris Cornell, also with the county survey team, said that in view of the grave markers, he also was not surprised that the dig had uncovered remains.

"It looks like the markers that are here are marking intact graves," Dr. Pratt said.

The team uncovered a second set of bones in the same pit as the first remains were found, about 60 inches away.

"There likely are two more coffins" in that 60-inch space, Dr. Pratt said.

About 70 feet east of the area where the remains were found, another dig is taking place. There were no markers at that site, but regular depressions in the ground indicate a row of graves.

Dr. Pratt, who wore rubber gloves and a protective mask to guard against possible contamination, said he will continue work at the site today and probably Monday before reporting his findings to commissioners.

About 100 feet south of the second excavation site, 30 to 40 grave markers have been stolen in the past few weeks. A hole, found to contain wood fragments likely from a coffin, also was dug.

Criminal Charges Possible

Mr. Pizza said that any persons found digging in the cemetery could be charged with trespassing, a fourth-degree misdemeanor, as the site is county property.

He said anyone found to be tampering with a grave in which remains are found could be charged under a state law which dictates that "no one except as authorized by law shall treat a human corpse in a way that he knows would outrage reasonable family sensibilities or community sensibilities."

The crime can be a second-degree misdemeanor or a fourth-degree felony, Mr. Pizza said.

Mr. Pizza noted that the same sensibilities require that "we explore all the rows where there are markers," and perhaps 20 feet beyond.

Cemetery Declared Abandoned

Commissioners last week voted to declare the cemetery abandoned and to advertise for the removal of any remains by friends or relatives prior to their removal by the county. Work on the seniors' complex has been stopped since the discovery of the markers.

Milan Forkapa, county administrator, said he expects commissioners to be asked Monday to decide on the disposition of remains that are found. He said it might be "more dignified" to rebury any remains before the end of the 30-day period for claims.

Those remains found Friday will be stored at the offices of the Lucas County coroner before reburial in Forest Cemetery.

"We don't know, frankly" what the county will do about the cemetery — excavate the entire area or leave some of it intact, Mr. Forkapa said. He said the county will be seeking advice on how to proceed.

"There are a lot of intangibles so far, but today we know more than we did yesterday."

THROUGH THE EYES OF HEAVEN

Words by NINA GAREY Music by DON WILLIAMS

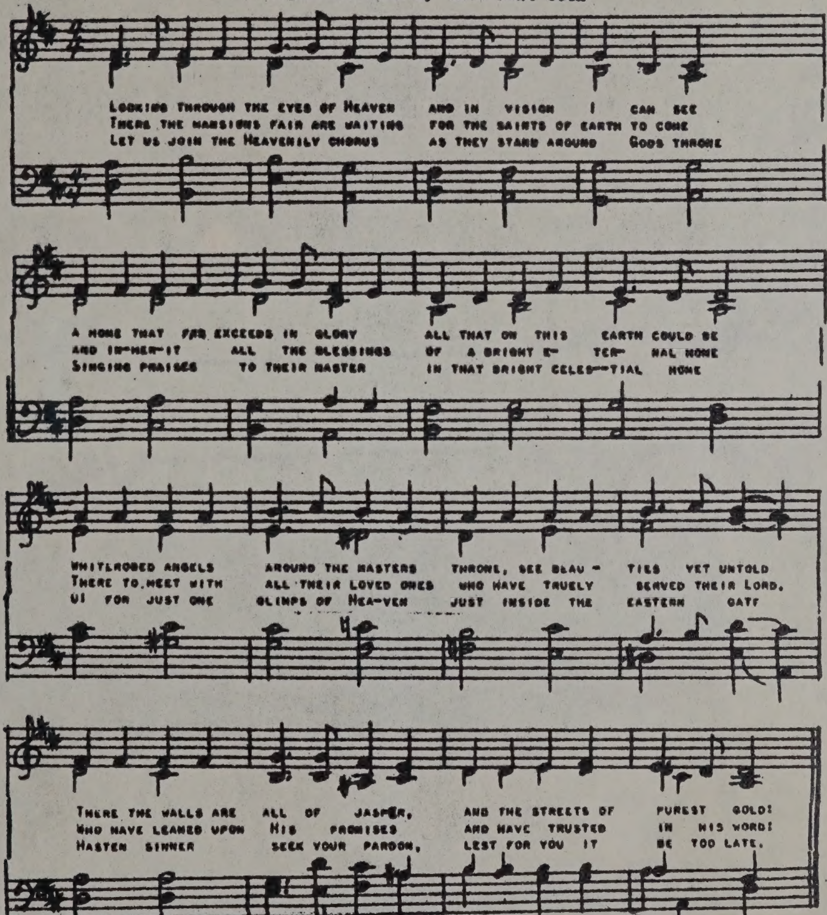
Harmonization by EMMA JANE COOK



LOOKING THROUGH THE EYES OF HEAVEN AND IN VISION I CAN SEE
THERE THE MANSIONS FAIR ARE WAITING FOR THE SAINTS OF EARTH TO COME
LET US JOIN THE HEAVENILY CHORUS AS THEY STAND AROUND GODS THRONE
A HOME THAT FAR EXCEEDS IN GLORY ALL THAT ON THIS EARTH COULD BE
AND IN-HER-IT ALL THE BLESSINGS OF A BRIGHT E- TER- NAL HOME
SINGING PRAISES TO THEIR MASTER IN THAT BRIGHT CELES--TIAL HOME
WHITEROBED ANGELS AROUND THE MASTERS THRONE, SEE BEAU - TIES YET UNTOLD
THERE TO.MEET WITH ALL THEIR LOVED ONES WHO HAVE TRUELY SERVED THEIR LORD.
O! FOR JUST ONE GLIMPS OF HEA-VEN JUST INSIDE THE EASTERN GATE
THERE THE WALLS ARE ALL OF JASPER, AND THE STREETS OF PUREST GOLD!
WHO HAVE LEANED UPON HIS PROMISES AND HAVE TRUSTED IN HIS WORD!
HASTEN SINNER SEEK YOUR PARDON, LEST FOR YOU IT BE TOO LATE.

Safeguards for A-Plant Outlined

An atomic engineer says safety devices would prevent contaminants from escaping from a proposed nuclear power plant at San Onofre and endangering traffic on nearby highways.

James B. Henderson, project engineer for the plant, told an Atomic Energy Commission hearing in Santa Ana yesterday that even if there were an accident, not enough contaminants would be released to cause harm. He said farm products and water in the area would be constantly monitored "to reassure the public."

Southern California Edison Co. and the San Diego Gas & Electric Co. are seeking to build the $82 million plant.

MORTUARY

In Remembrance

God hath not promised ——
Skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways
All our lives through;
God hath not promised
Sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
Peace without pain.

But God hath promised
Strength for the day,
Rest for the labor,
Light for the way.
Grace for the trials,
Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy
Undying love . . . .

ROUGH, STUART S.Orange County Register, The (Santa Ana, CA) - Friday, December 28, 2012died suddenly on December 5, 2012. He was 92 and was eating lunch. It had been three months since he was diagnosed with cancer of the esophagus and he was struggling to regain his strength after 23 targeted radiation treatments. Stuart was born August 11, 1920 in Idaho. His parents were school teachers who summered in Southern California. They quickly decided to move there. Home for Stuart and his two siblings became Montebello, just east of Los Angeles. He graduated as class valedictorian from Montebello High in 1937. Continuing his education at Occidental College in Los Angeles, he graduated in June, 1941. He obtained his teaching credential and joined his parents teaching in the Montebello Unified School district. Shortly after war was declared, Stuart enlisted in the Navy. After receiving officer training at Notre Dame University (one of the "90 day blunders"), he was shipped out to England. Eventually his ship would become one of the close support vessels during the D-Day invasion of France. Stuart met the love of his life shortly after the war. He and Harriet were married in 1946 and remained committed and affectionate to each other for 64 years until her death in 2010. He enrolled in law school, going at night after work, and graduated from Southwestern University School of Law in Los Angeles in 1952. He passed the California Bar but chose to continue the small business he had started while in law school instead of practicing law. For more than thirty years he ran his own agency working with other lawyers, providing court and fiduciary surety bonds to their clients. Stuart was a Master Mason. He was a tireless supporter of the YMCA. And he was active at all levels in his church, Grace Presbyterian. He was preceded in death by his parents; sister, Carolyn Dulap; his brother, James; and his beloved wife, Harriet. He is survived by his son, John; his daughter, Jenetha; fourteen grandchildren and sixteen great grandchildren. Services were held at Rose Hills Memorial Park in Whittier on December 9 and 10. Donations in his memory may be sent to the USO, Montebello YMCA, or the Doane College Rough Scholarship Fund (Crete, Nebraska).

LANSING — A growing list of states and universities across the country are pulling their investments from foreign companies that deal with Sudan, Iran, and other nations accused of government-supported genocide or terrorism.

It could be the largest wave of public divestment activity since efforts targeting South Africa and apartheid in the 1980s.

Michigan is among the states that soon could join the latest effort. The state Legislature will hold hearings today on bills that would restrict the state's pension fund investments.

According to the Sudan Divestment Task Force, 19 states and more than 50 universities have adopted some sort of divestment policy related to the African nation, where the gov-

Karen Elizabeth Stegeman

Karen Elizabeth Stegeman, 54, of Phoenix, AZ, passed away suddenly on June 14, 2020 of a heart attack. She was born on May 14, 1966 in Toledo, OH as the only daughter of beloved parents John G. and Joann E. Stegeman who preceded her in death.

Karen attended E.L. Bowsher High School in Toledo, Ohio and later obtained a degree in cosmetology. She became one of the youngest regional managers for Glemby Salons in the Midwest. She moved to Indianapolis, where she was very proud making the Indianapolis Colts cheerleaders look their best. Karen was passionate about her career, so she then made a career change. For the past 13 years she was a Senior Recruiter at American Travelers Staffing Professionals. This career path moved her to Phoenix, then Boca Raton, and back to Phoenix and a cherished life with Anne Gibbons and their four dogs, Davey, Chaz, Benji and Cooper.

Karen was an avid baseball fan and was raised as a Toledo Mud Hen and Detroit Tigers fan. She also was a huge Ohio State Buckeyes fan. She was a "southpaw" who could throw a great pitch. While living in Phoenix, she loved attending the Arizona Diamondbacks games and organized a softball team and enjoyed kickball with Anne and her friends.

Karen is survived by her loving companion of 12 years Anne Gibbons; Anne's family; her brothers, Mark (Jenny) Stegeman, David (Diane) Stegeman; nephews, Michael, Jeffrey, Nicholas, Trace, Grant and Mitchell Stegeman; and niece, Mackenzie Stegeman. Also left to treasure her memory are many Stegeman and Summersett family aunts, uncles, cousins and loving friends from Phoenix, Boca Raton and Toledo.

Visitation will be held on Monday June 22, 2020, beginning at 10:00 a.m. on AZ time. A Funeral Service and live video stream will be held at 11:00 a.m. on AZ time (2:00 p.m. EDT) at Whitney & Murphy Funeral Home, 4800 E. Indian School Rd., Phoenix. The live video stream link of the service will be available at https://www.facebook.com/WhitneyMurphyFH/ Due to the coronavirus pandemic, the family asks anyone who is sick or has concerns to please refrain from attending. Social distancing and hand hygiene will be observed.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the American Heart Association, The Arthritis Foundation or a charity of the donor's choice.
